MALACAÑANG
MANILA

11:20 P.M.

250

June 21, 1970

Have just talked to Imelda at Osaka by long distance. They have been royally received and tomorrow is the formal national day of the Philippines.

Loafed all day playing golf, reading and working quietly on the legislative program.

Must work out the final provisions for the budget and the constitutional convention resolution.